Superintendent Resignation

Dr. Robert McGowen has announced his resignation as Superintendent of Schools for the Alvin Independent School District. An agreement has been reached which allows Dr. McGowen the ability to pursue other interests and permits the Board to pursue hiring another Superintendent. The Board and Dr. McGowen have entered into the agreement believing it is in their respective best interests and in the best interests of the District.

Dr. McGowen thanks the present and past Board of Trustees for providing him with the opportunity to serve in the Alvin Independent School District. A school district is measured by the commitment of the Board, staff and community to its children and their achievement. This District is indeed so committed. Dr. McGowen would like to express his heartfelt appreciation to the staff and community for their support of the District's programs and services during his term as Superintendent.

Success requires hard work, dedication, leadership and vision. The Board and Dr. McGowen wish to acknowledge and recognize the teachers, principals, administrators, staff, students, parents and patrons who have all contributed to the District's success.

The Board will soon begin its search for a new Superintendent so as not to disrupt the District's operations.
