Financial Aid 101 –

Dora Sims
ACC Financial Aid Director
Tip #1 – Apply for Financial Aid

• FAFSA – Free Application for Federal Student Aid
  • Apply online at https://fafsa.ed.gov
  • Obtain your FSA ID
  • Everyone qualifies for some form of financial aid
  • Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) to complete the tax sections for parent and student

• Scholarships
  • College or university website
  • Employers, banks, other affiliations
  • Internet sites
  • Veteran benefits for dependents
Tip #2 - Special Circumstances

Notify your financial aid advisor if you have one or both of the following -

• Changes in income

• Loss of employment
Tip #3 - Email and WebAdvisors

• Check email and respond to all requests

• Mark each schools’ domain as “safe” (ex: @alvincollege.edu)

• Always include your full name, ID Number (not SSN) and semester for which you are inquiring

• Check your school’s WebAdvisor for information and updates
Tip #4 – Ask Before Dropping Classes

- Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) – must maintain completion rate and GPA
- Certain types of aid require minimum enrollment
- Limit on number of times students can drop/withdrawal (state and federal)
- Withdrawing from classes and/or low GPA can result in paying back financial aid or being placed on probation
Tip #5 – School or Scam?

• FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS
  • Read, follow directions, ask questions, and respond

• NEVER pay to receive aid
  • FAFSA.ed.gov - not .com or .net
  • Legitimate scholarships do not charge a fee to complete an application
Financial Aid Trends

• Federal loan interest rates are still low and have been capped
• Pell Grant Lifetime Eligibility Limit – equivalent of 12 full-time semesters
• Federal loan limits and loss of subsidy for not completing your degree
Changes to the FAFSA for 2018-2019

- Students will be able to submit a 2017-18 FAFSA as early as October 1, 2016, rather than beginning on January 1, 2017.
- Students and parents will report income information from an earlier tax year (2015 instead of 2016).
- The 2017-2018 financial aid application year runs from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018.
